

Our Story:

Many years ago, Judy Cerano had fantasies of throwing one of her nice china plates, because she was mad about an event in her life. That fantasy, many years later, turned into a business for her and her daughter, Jennifer Pricco.

Judy and Jennifer created the Sweet Madness® Candies Plate to Break® in Judy's kitchen in the fall of 2004. They started manufacturing the plates made out of candy, on February 28, 2006.

In 2007, they introduced the Wedding Plate to Break for wedding receptions and showers. And, the Let's Celebrate! plate was added to help celebrate holidays, birthday's, graduations, showers, etc.

Judy and her husband, Elmer, live in Dimondale, MI.

Jennifer and her family live in Okemos, MI.

SWEET MADNESS® CANDIES, LLC

A Plate to Break®

A unique candy for unique occasions

The SWEET MADNESS® A Plate to Break® is designed to help with your madness about such things as:

- * Another Birthday
- * Getting a divorce
- * Your aches and pains
- * Any other reason to express your madness!
- * Losing your job
- * Your boss is a jerk
- * Your test score

The Let's Celebrate! Plate to Break® offers a unique gift that may be used to express happiness and celebration for showers, graduations, birthdays, and other joyous events. The card has a small area for a short personal note.

Breaking of the Wedding Plate signifies good luck, joyful union between two people and a couples commitment to one another. Wedding reception or shower guests will enjoy the candy plates as their favor or participating in the unique breaking of the plate tradition. The bride may elect to create her own personalized card.

Sweet Madness® and Let's Celebrate Candy plates come with a card and are enclosed in a crystal clear cellophane bag with a unique burgundy bow with gold trim. The Wedding Candy Plates come with a card explaining the wedding tradition and enclosed in a crystal clear cellophane bag tied with a unique white bow with silver trim.

Candy plates are 5 1/2 inches in diameter.
